

JPRO Portland

The third annual Laurie Rogoway Outstanding Jewish Professional Award will be presented to Ben Winkleblack at the 97th Annual Meeting of the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland June 13. This award honors Laurie’s dedication to community and passion for Jewish life, and includes $1,800 to participate in a professional development experience.

Ben, a native Oregonian, has worked at the Jewish Federation for eleven years, the last eight as Director of Finance. He is also chairing a national group of Federation finance professionals and is coordinating their mission to Israel. Check out the June issue of Oregon Jewish Life for more on Ben.
