

MASTER CLASS

TASK MANAGEMENT AND DELEGATION WITH LESS STRESS

with Diana Bloom

Classes over Zoom:

Wednesdays Oct. 10, Oct. 31, and Nov. 14 from 1:00pm-2:30pm Eastern

Office hours:

Wednesdays Oct. 17 and Nov. 7 from 1:00pm-1:30pm and Friday Nov. 16 from 1:00pm-2:00pm Eastern

JPRO members $175 / $140 early bird

Non-members $350 / $275 early bird

Early bird deadline is August 31

Learn to achieve:

- Higher productivity and efficiency in all areas of work with less stress
- Easy methods to eliminate misunderstandings in delegation
- How to use available electronic systems to support task and project management and delegation
- Techniques to track work to completion so nothing falls through the cracks

“Diana gave me the tools and resources to feel like I could take control of a chaotic schedule. She helped me prioritize, break down projects into manageable tasks, and schedule my day with realistic expectations. On the days when I’m really using these tools, I go home satisfied that my work for the day is complete and assured that I’m attending to my prior the day is complete and assured that I’m attending to my priorities.”

— Tilly Shames, Executive Director, University of Michigan Hillel

JPRO Master Classes are skill-based trainings in areas requested by our members. JPRO Master Classes offer our members discounted access to best-in-class trainings through which they will advance their professional skills and connect with colleagues from across the diversity of our sector.

Questions?

Please contact Erica Goldman at erica@jpro.org